YOUR RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES AS AN APPLICANT OR RECIPIENT

YOUR RIGHTS AS AN APPLICANT OR RECIPIENT:

1. To be served without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, political affiliation, marital status, sex, disability, or age.
2. To be treated with courtesy, consideration and respect.
3. To discuss your case with the Alameda County Social Services Agency any time you are not satisfied.
4. The county must inform you in writing if you qualify for aid, and when your aid changes or stops.
5. To request a hearing if you are not satisfied with an action or lack of action by the Social Services Agency, or if you feel you have been discriminated against in any way. Your request should be in writing and must state that you want a hearing and the reason you are dissatisfied. Use the back of your notice of action or obtain a request form from the Social Services Office. Your request for hearing must be within 90 days of the date of the notice of action letter. You are entitled to representation by a person of your own choosing, including legal counsel. Send your request for an Administrative Hearing to:
APPEALS UNIT, General Assistance Hearing Request, 7751 Edgewater Drive, Oakland, CA 94621
6. To have all information in your case records remain confidential. However, if a felony arrest warrant is issued for you or a member of your family, we may release identity, telephone number, and address information to law enforcement officials. This release of information would also be made on deceased members of your family.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES AS AN APPLICANT OR RECIPIENT

1. You must complete all forms required to determine your eligibility.
2. You must return a properly completed SAR7 (Income and Eligibility Report) by the last day of the month in which it is due. A late SAR7 may cause your next GA payment to be late.
3. You must provide written verification of information necessary to determine your eligibility.
4. You must apply for, and accept any unconditionally available income; you must also accept Alameda County's, or its designees, services and assistance in seeking unconditional sources of income, such as SSI/SSP.
5. If you are participating as an outpatient in a drug and/or alcohol treatment program, you must submit written verification of treatment to your worker by the end of the month following the treatment.
6. As a recipient, you must comply with the General Assistance Employment Services program unless a medical provider determines that you cannot work due to a physical or mental disability. A medical report or statement is required to document the determination.
 - a. At your first Employment Services appointment, the county will explain the Employment Services program to you.
 - b. You must sign a statement of the Employment Services program's cooperation requirements and sanctions.
 - c. If you attend a school or a training program during the day, the Social Services Agency must approve the program, or you will not be eligible. This does not apply to individuals who are under 18 or is exempt.
7. You must comply with all required program requirements. The County may discontinue your General Assistance case and impose a 180-day sanction for any willful failure or three negligent failures to comply with program requirements.

THE FOLLOWING CHANGES MUST BE REPORTED TO YOUR WORKER WITHIN 10 DAYS:

1. You begin or stop work and/or a training program.
2. You are unable to work due to an illness or disability.
3. Your income increases, decreases, starts, or stops. Income could be from relatives, employment, unemployment or disability benefits, tax refunds, worker’s compensation, or any other source.
4. You receive a lump sum payment. Report it before you spend it.
5. You move to another address or visit outside the County or State for more than 30 days.
6. Your housing costs change, or you begin receiving free rent or utilities where you live.
7. Anyone moves in or out of your home, including your children or parents.
8. You marry, separate, divorce, or are widowed.
9. You obtain or dispose of real or personal property (such as you open a bank account or buy a car).
10. You begin a period of incarceration in a County jail, a work furlough facility, a live-in drug or alcohol treatment program, or in a State prison.
